Born in 1954 at Luderwan, Kupwara Prof. Mushtaq Ahmad Wani graduated from Govt. College Sopore and completed his Post Graduate degree in English from University of Kashmir in 1976. He was appointed as Lecturer in English in the Department of Higher Education in May 1978. He taught English Language and English Literature at UG and PG levels in different colleges of the state. Prof wani besides being an eminent teacher has been an educational administrator and institution builder. He was posted as Incharge Principal at Govt. Degree College Kupwara in 1991 where he played a pivotal role in the development of the newly established college. It was due to his personal efforts that state land measuring 160 kanals was acquired and construction of various blocks was undertaken and completed in record time. He oversaw the shifting of the college from the temporary residence to its own campus offering learning opportunities in Arts and Science streams to the students of the backward and border district of Kupwara.

Prof. Wani was transferred and posted at Govt. College for women M.A Road Srinagar in 2000. At this prestigious college apart from teaching assignments he held many key administrative positions including Coordinator NAAC Steering Committee and Coordinator PG Programmes. He played active role in introducing Post graduate courses at the college level and made significant contribution in helping the college to get NAAC accreditation with “A” Grade.

Prof. Wani was appointed as Principal in 2006 and posted in various colleges which included Govt. Degree College Kupwara, Govt. College Baramulla and Govt. College for Women, M.A Road Srinagar. While serving in these colleges he not only made substantial contribution in academics and institution building but also remained actively involved in planning and policy making decisions for the improvement of quality education in colleges. He was associated with many committees at the state and divisional level for number of activities aimed at streamlining the system for efficacious delivery. He was also member of Academic Council University of Kashmir and was associated with several committees for examination reforms and quality enhancement. He had a major role in operationalizing newly created colleges at Sogam and border town of Tangdar. Prof. Wani steered Govt. College for Women, M.A Road to achieve Grade “A” in the NAAC assessment and re-accreditation in year 2012.

After his retirement in April 2012 Prof. Wani was involved in social work and educational uplift initiatives in his native village. He worked for promotion of computer literacy as Chairman of Yousuf Foundations, a charitable trust for education and promotion of peace and harmony. He is also a member of the collegium of NAAC Assessors.

Prof. Mushtaq Wani assumed the charge of Member of J&K Public Service Commission on 27th July 2015.
