If the condition is remediable by operation it should be stated.

The following intimation is made for the guidance of the Medical Examiner:-

- (1) In the medical examination of the candidates Medical Officers are specially required to use tact and judgment and to take proper precaution to secure privacy with the object of removing any objection which may be made by individual to stripping.
- (2) Should a candidate object to the exposure of his person for detection of haemorrhoids, venereal diseases, hernia and disease of the testicles; scrotum and rectum the candidate must if this examinations in his case is in the opinion of the board necessary be rejected.

- (1) The opinion of the board accepting or rejecting a candidate is final and cannot be questioned on any ground. The board is debarred from disclosing to any candidate permanently unfit the reasons for his rejection. In these cases their opinion and report is to be treated as strictly confidential and for the information of Government only. Where however, the board detects temporary defects amenable to treatment the candidate may be so informed in order that he may have the defect remedied and present himself for re-examination.
- (2) No person will be deemed qualified for admission to the service unless he satisfies the Government that he has no disease constitutional affection or bodily infirmity unfitting him or likely to unfit him for that service.
- (3) It should be understood that the question of fitness involves the future as well as present and the main object of medical examination is to secure continuous effective service and in the case of candidates for permanent appointment to prevent early pension or payment in case of premature death. It is at the same time to be noted that the question is one of the likelihood of continuous, of effective service and that the rejection of candidate need not be advised on account of the presence of a defect which in only a small proportion of cases is found to interfere with continuous effective service.

The candidate must make the statement required below prior to his medical examination and must sign the declaration appended thereto. His attention is specially directed to the warning contained in the note below:-
